Eshref Rüya

Driven into the world of crime left all alone after losing his parents at a young age, Eshref has become a powerful figure in the underworld over the years. For him, the Orphans are the brothers he has replaced his lost family with. But this family exists right in the heart of the criminal world. While Eşref bears the heavy responsibility of leading an underground organization, his longing for peace never ceases. But when Nisan enters his life unexpectedly, she will drag him into a whirlwind he could never have foreseen.

VALLEY of HEARTS

Years ago, Sumru abandoned her twins and built a new life with Samet Şansalan, one of Cappadocia's wealthiest men. Nuh and Melek, who grew up unaware of their mother's identity, return on the most painful day of their lives, burning with years of anger. At the same time, Samet's eldest son Cihan comes for what he thinks is a brief visit, only to be caught in the schemes of his father and aunt Hikmet—schemes his cousin Sevilay resents, and his jealous half-brother Esat opposes. As Nuh and Melek confront their mother, their fates collide with Cihan and Sevilay, leading to the ultimate shock: facing Sumru herself.

ANOTHER LOVE

"Another Love" tells the powerful story of an anchorman and a prosecutor, drawn into an affair filled with passion and tension as they both seek to reveal the dark truth about a mysterious serial killer. When the prosecutor Leyla returns to Istanbul after years away, she is faced with a mystifying case of serial murders. As the investigation deepens, she realizes that the case is inextricably linked with dark incidents long hidden in her family that will come back to haunt them all.

The serial killer case hits the headlines thanks to coverage by Kenan, who, like Leyla, goes in pursuit of the killer unaware that he himself is actually the murderer Dogan—the product of a split personality that emerges in a recurrence of psychological problems that had troubled him during his traumatic childhood.
